a. Action Reported by the Field

1. There was no leaflet raid during June because of poor weather conditions and headquarters' prohibition of raids during the latter part of the moon phase.
2. About ninety copies of the second "Socialist Movement in Exile" letter have been put in addressed envelopes and are being pouched to and Headquarters for mailing.
3. Three thousand pounds of VALUABLE articles and 100 parachutes, each containing five cans of articles, have been prepared for air dropping at any time.

b. Pending Action

Headquarters approval of two leaflet texts has been withheld pending a decision on the continuance of overflights.

c. Observed Results

Refugee Zenel Seit stated that the Albanian populace regarded the leaflets as "sacred gems" and also made the following remarks concerning the effect of leaflets and article drops in Albania:

1. The Albanian people credit our Food Offer leaflets, which questioned why rationing was still in effect in Albania, with inducing the government to partially abolish rationing in January 1956.
2. The small stamp leaflets are so numerous and so widely distributed throughout the country that it has been impossible for the regime to have them all gathered. The slogans concerning religion and patriotism were particularly well liked by the people.
3. The article drops have had a very positive effect on the people since they show that the Free World is taking all measures to try to get aid to the people and the confiscation of the articles and the propaganda of the Security Police only serve to increase the hatred of the people against the regime.

d. Security Factors

No new information.
